BLM Advisory Council to meet in Farmington

The New Mexico Bureau of Land Management Resource Advisory Council meets in Farmington September 10-12 at the Marriott Courtyard hotel, 506 Scott Avenue.

On September 10, beginning at 6:00 p.m. at the hotel, the Council will hold a public hearing for members of the public to address any concerns they may have about BLM land management.

On September 11 and September 12, the Council will meet at the hotel to address topics that include the new sustaining working landscapes initiative, oil and gas compliance, geology, areas of critical environmental concern and development of those areas. In addition, discussion will include recreation and visitor services priorities.

The 15-member BLM Resource Advisory Council provides advice and recommendations to the BLM on resource and land management issues for 13.3 million acres of public lands in New Mexico.
